

Dr. Aimee Callahan, Chief Learning Officer

Dr. Aimee Callahan has worked in higher education over the past 17 years as an adjunct faculty member, Director of Curriculum, and Academic Dean and VP. She spent time in China teaching ELA courses and taught Interpersonal Communication, Public Speaking and Intercultural Communication at the college and university level.

As a former first-generation student, she is passionate about promoting diversity, equity and inclusion in all learning environments to offer education to all learners as a "passport to a new life". Her most proud moment of her career thus far has been her time working as an Academic Dean and Director of Student-Run Businesses for Emily Griffith Technical College in downtown Denver.