

Jessika Harcey, Library Program Manager

Jessika has been with The Learning Source since 2008 and has held various roles as an instructor in both the Family Literacy and Library ELA programs and as an ELA trainer for new volunteers. She has her CELTA certification and holds a B.S.S from Cornell College in Sociology and Global Poverty + Social Justice. Teaching English to adults for nearly 12 years, has given Jessika opportunity to see many students' lives change through adult education and loves working with this population. She is excited to serve English language learners in The Learning Source's partnership with the Arapahoe Library District as the Library ELA Program Manager. Jessika can be reached at jessika@thelearningsource.org.

Jessika manages the ELA program in partnership with Arapahoe Library District and can be reached at jessika@thelearningsource.org