

Marilyn Pelech, Career Navigator

Marilyn has been with The Learning Source since 2018. She started as a Family Literacy teacher and now has moved into the position of Career Navigator. In her role as a Family Literacy teacher she found herself working with her students to set up career goals. Current position as a Career Navigator is natural fit. As a Family Literacy Teacher she found a passion working with adult learners. Her educational background consists of a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Spanish from Regis University. She also has a Master's degree in Management from CU Boulder. Marilyn can be reached at marilyn@thelearningsource.org.
